

JOB TITLE: Mid-weight Creative
DIVISION/TEAM: Creative
REPORTING TO: Head of Content

Here at SevenC3 we are always looking for creative, passionate, forward-thinking people.

In this role you will be creating amazing ideas to present to internal teams and client, you'll work closely with the strategy team, clients and other internal teams to produce great work with a sense of humour and a real respect for working as part of a successful team.

We'll keep you busy with.....

- Generating creative campaigns
- Bringing those ideas to life, whether in print, digital or film
- Keeping up with social media platforms and formats
- Working collaboratively with the strategy team to create seamless campaigns
- Presenting your ideas to the team and clients

You'll know you're doing a great job when....

- When your work is nominated for a creative award scheme
- When your work is effective against the project KPI
- When we win a pitch based on your concept
- When you feel challenged and are outside of your conform zone
- When we promote you to Senior Creative as there is scope to grow

More than this it's about how you go about your days at Seven. We love it when people are...

- Gutsy and say it straight, to challenge us but in equal measure to be smart and honest and warm.
- Genuine and confident, but not arrogant, friendly and someone that people naturally gravitate to and want to work with.
- Creative and open minded to come up with the best solution or new initiative.
- Positive always, with the ability to rise above any setbacks.
- Brave and admit when something isn't working, come up with ideas, make changes for the better.
- Keen to develop themselves, share what you learn and use new knowledge to make things better.
- Self-aware, decent and considerate, able to diffuse situations and can work well with different characters.
